

September 24
Our Venerable and God-Inspired Father Silouan of Mount Athos

At Lord, I Have Cried

First Mode. Thou art the joy

D

1) The new - ly sprung son of A - thos let us now hymn with joy, who hath been right - ly add - ed to the Saints' con - gre - ga - tion.

2

3

For he re - flect - ed clear - ly their vir - tues and love:

4

won-drous fa - ther blest Sil - ou - an, who wast vouch-safed to be - hold

5

God_ Whose Grace he sought and made man - i - fest to all the world.

D

2) For God a - lone didst thou long from thy youth, O Sil - ou - an,

2

and thou didst firm - ly hold Him not a - lone by mere knowl - edge, but al - so by the Spir - it's in - ef - fa - ble grace;

3

4 and thou off - 'rest up fer - vent prayer that all the peo - ples and nat -

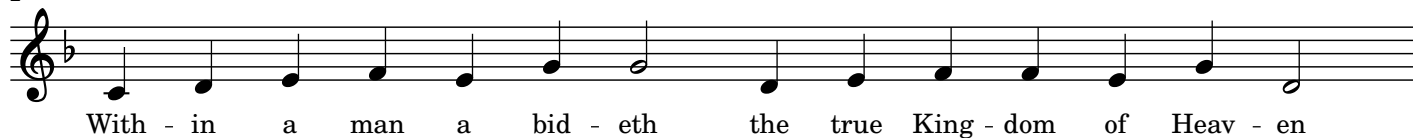

5

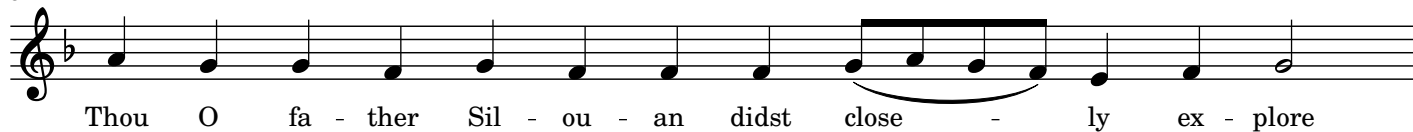

D

2

3

4

5

Second Mode. With what fair crowns

G

2

3

4
owe _____ thee? For by thy writ - ings_ our thirst _____ is _____ quenched,

5 and we have re-ceived from thee _____ great rich - es: thy teach - ing

6 to keep the mind in _____ the a - byss _____ of _____ hell, yet_ while_ not ev - er suc - cumb - ing _____ to de - spair _____ there - in.

7

8
Through this may _____ we find _____ sal - va - tion

9 being filled with _____ god - ly _____ hope. And now by _____ the 10

Ho - ly _____ Spir - it, art thou, O blest Sil - ou - an, 11

con-firmed as a guide for _____ all _____ the _____ world.

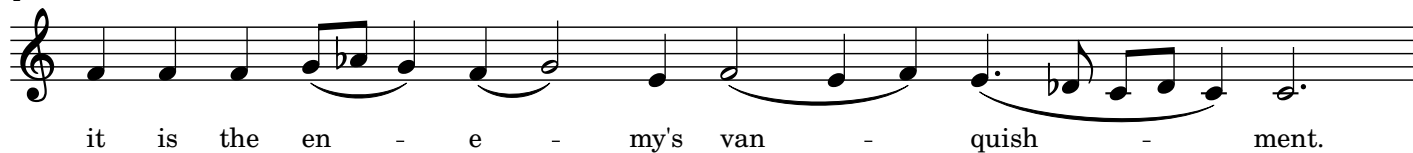

G
5) Val - iant souls which have suf - fered _____ a _____ fall

2 can by means of _____ it _____ find _____ res - tor - a - tion.

3

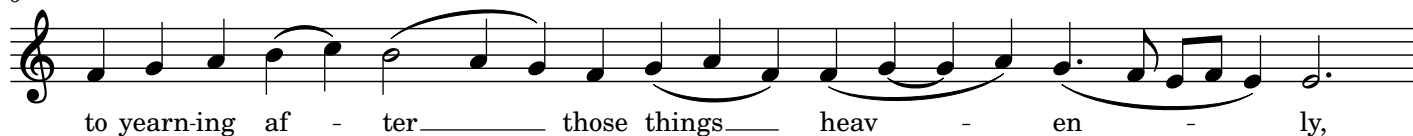

4

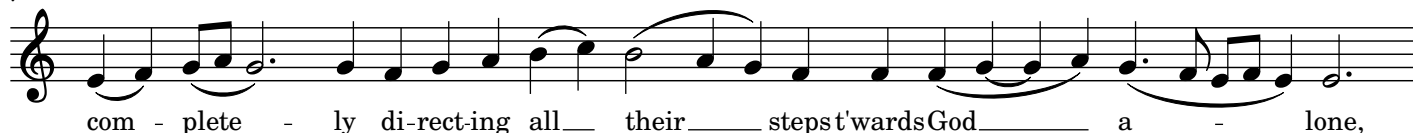

5

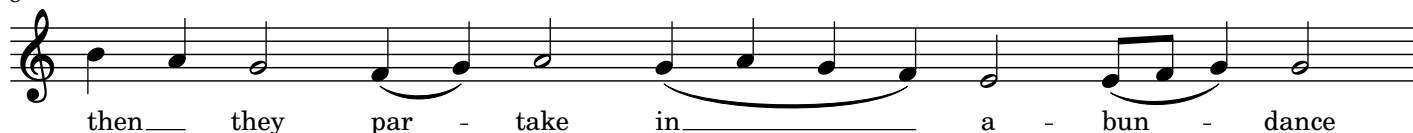

6

7

8

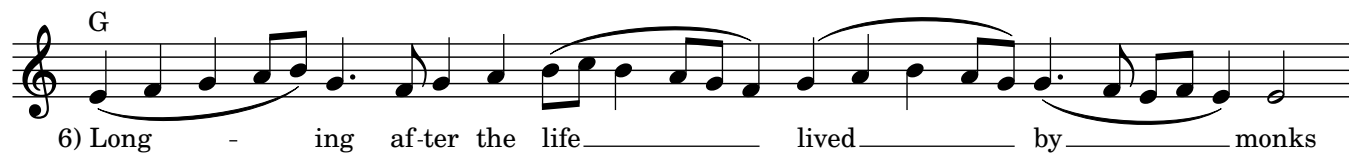

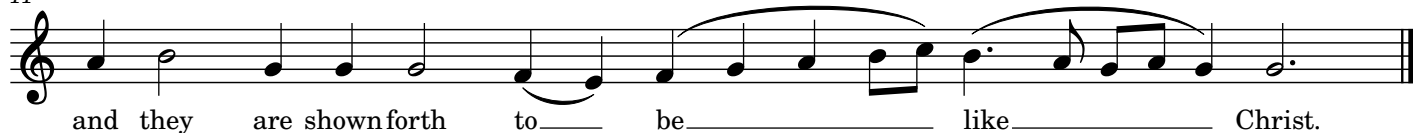

9

10

11

2

 was en - kin - dled in thy soul, O fa - ther,

3

 when the The - o - to - kos be - stowed on thee

4

 re - pent - ance as a sal - vi - fic grace.

5

 She cen - sured thee say - ing: I am not pleased with thy life, for dream - ing, thou hadst swal - lowed down a snake.

6

7

 For this cause, O bless - ed Sil - ou - an, thou didst fol - low

8

 the way of ex - cel - lent vir - tue

9 on the Ho - ly Moun - tain, there thou found - est

10 weep - ing to be the key that doth o - pen wide 11

 the boun - ti - ful mer - cies of the Lord.

At the ApostichaPlagal of the First Mode. Rejoice

D

1) Re - joice, — thou who wast nur - tured by God, O won-drous Sil - ou - an, thou

2 splen - dor of Rus - sia's lands and glo - ry of Ho - ly A - thos

3 and preach - er of — Grace di - vine to the Church of Christ and the 4 res - to - ra - tion of all those who have great - ly sinned, strength of those —

5 who now stand a - right, and ground in Christ — for all de - spair -

6
-ing and weak - ened souls, and a liv - ing — book of hu - mil -

7
- i - ty for us all. Where - fore, — as we ex - tol thee and en -

8
- treat, thee, O bless - ed saint, grant that the all - ho - ly Spir - it

9 may make his dwell - ing with - in our hearts, through thine in - ter -

10
- ces - sions be - fore God, Whom thou hast glo - ri - fied by thy ho - ly life.

D

2) Re - joice, — thou who wast joined un - to Christ, by won-drousgifts of Grace which

2 worked in thy low - ly soul. But thou couldst not bear it when — this 3 most awe - some grace — was re - moved, for thou knew - est that — grace

4 tru - ly giv - eth life. Re - joice — bless - ed saint who shedd - est thy blood —

5 in thy prayers to God, in la - men - ta - tion for the whole — of cre - a - tion, and more es - pe - cial - ly for the dead,

6

7

O thou friend of souls. To give — ac - count of thy great life per -

8

-plex - eth us might - i - ly, for tru - ly an - oth - er breath — of 9

the Spir - it breathed in thy ver - y breast, where - as we thy 10 child - dren are em - broil - ed and en - snared in the bus - y - ness of life.

3) Re - jice, — thou who dost scat - ter vain thoughts, de - stroy - ing all the e - vil

2 spir - its be - guil - ing us: Great glo - ry of all Mount A - thos,

3
thou who dost guide — and pro - tect ev - 'ry soul pre - serv - ing

4 cease - less watch - ful - ness, u - nit - er of heart and mind, to the sens -

5
-es a ray of light, thou sword that cutt - est off the stir -

6
-ings of rag - ing pride, ra - diant tab - er - nac - le of light —

7
un - ap - proach - a - ble, where - in — thou hast kept hid - den the un -

8
-speak - a - ble mys - ter - ries, that which no eye hath be - held, — nor 9 the mind of man ev - er hath con - ceived, thou mouth of the 10

Lord — God, who de - clar - est with a great — voice the will of God to men.

At the Praises

Plagal of the Fourth Mode. O strange wonder

1) O our won-drous fa - ther Sil - ou - an, e - qual in hon - or to those

2 ra - dant fa - thers who taught of old. O thou u - ni - ver - sal light

3 and wise teach - er for all the world: a new A - pos - tle

4 filled with the Spir - it's grace. Thou who hast ri - valed the mar - tyrs in thy love,

5 boast of the Ho - ly Church, in the Spir - it stand -

6 -ing in the sight of God, in - ter - cede thou cease - less - ly for 7 those who hon - or thee.

8 2) O our won-drous fa - ther Sil - ou - an, thou wast made like un - to Christ,

9 as the Spir - it ac - quaint - ed thee with His bound - less mer - cy and made His kind - ness known un - to thee. Thus, in - ter - cede that 11 all na - tions may ob - tain the know - ledge of their Cre - a - tor and their God,

10 D C D

12 E D
ask - ing that we may find, Him Who is past na - ture,

13 G e - ven Christ the Word, the e - ter - nal Treas - ure and the 14 C sweet - ness of our souls.

15 D C
3) Love of God is the ful - fill - ment of the law, it is the tri - umph of Grace.

16 D G
And re - ceiv - ing that ver - y love in the sec - ret of thy heart,

17 D C D
by a - dop - tion wast thou re - made like un - to God; and 18

there - by thou off - 'rest up as wholeburnt off - 'rings and end - less sac - ri - fice,

19 E D
prayer with - out meas - ure and bound - less tears; all which

20 G the Lord God hath re - ceived as an in - cense pure and sweet and

21 C giv - en thee a crown.

22 D C
4) Tru - ly thou didst un - der - stand a - right the height of know - ledge, to wit:

23 D G
that hu - mil - i - ty is the path where - by ev - 'ry man is clothed

24 D C D
in the na - ture that is di - vine. For like - wise thou wast

25
u - nit - ed to the Lord, and though a - midst a great mul - ti - tude of monks,

26 E D
thou dwelt - est in the depths of the inn - er de - sert,

27 G
off - 'ring praise to God. Where - fore, we all praise thy name, O

28 C right - eous Sil - ou - an.